LAIMUN HEADS INTO 13TH YEAR

Mira Costa students are finalizing plans for the annual Los Angeles Invitational Model U.N. conference scheduled for Saturday, December 8. The conference is geared toward novice students who are typically freshmen or 1st-year sophomores. Sixteen schools from southern California will be represented. Parents are encouraged to visit and observe the proceedings from 9:00am-5:00pm that day.

The conference will encompass a wide variety of topics such as humanitarian issues, child soldiers, border disputes, international corporations and money laundering. About 80 students from MCHS are involved in staffing LAIMUN. Will Hollingsworth is the General Secretary and the following hold other key positions:
